

Gertrude Longbottom

Born: 24 September 1876, Louth, Lincolnshire

Died: 20 March 1935, Louth, Lincolnshire

Probate: 1935 Longbottom Probate

Census

1891, 15, single, scholar, The Hollies, Cemetery Road, Louth, Lincolnshire. Living with parents and one servant.

1901, 25, single, school-teacher of mathematics, 26a Cemetery Road, Louth, Lincolnshire. Living with parents and one servant.

1911, 35, single, private teacher of mathematics. The Hollies, Louth, Lincolnshire. Living with widowed mother and one servant.

Education

North London Collegiate School for Girls; Girton College, Cambridge 1893; BA 1896 (Class: I); Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania,

United States 1897

Part II (Class II, 1)

(St Andrews Maths History)

Bibliography

Royal Astronomical Society (Monthly Notices)

'The Secular Acceleration of the Moon's Mean Motion as Determined from the Occultations Recorded in the Almagest (with Fotheringham, J K)', MNRAS, 75 (1915), p.377

Elected Fellow, 1916 May 12, address: The Hollies, Louth, Lincolnshire, proposed by J K Fotheringham, MNRAS, 76 (1916), p.377 & MNRAS, 76 (1916), p.551

'Obituary', MNRAS, 96 (1936), p.295

RAS continued (Astronomy & Geophysics)

'Gertrude Longbottom, Steamboat Lady', A&G, 57 (2016), p.6.7

Other publications

Look and Learn, Miss Longbottom Lady Wrangler